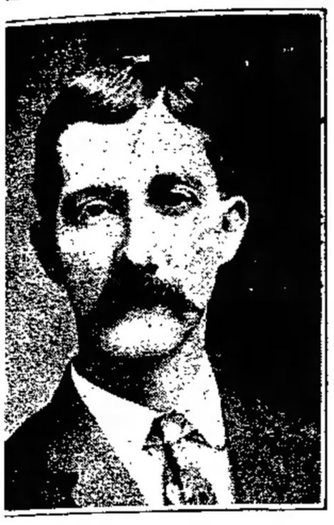
SHUTTERLY.

e Reform Candidate on a Reform Platform.



e believe that our city has already ruled too long by an organized few that its best interests demand a ge from the present management of icipal affairs. We stand for clean rnment and a square and honest to every man. We are not backed ny ring or corporation, nor are we y of any "trade" for support, and, ected, have no pledges to fulfill, but do only what we believe to be for best interests of the town, regardless irty.

e believe the town should profit by the country trade and river ic. We stand for a road to the try and a street to the river. We work to better the city's streets and ire the repair of all streets that have dug up and not properly replaced. on believe these some of the needs r Borough? If so, we solicit your pledging you our hearty support to fulfillment.

A Political Muse.

FIRST PART.

Draw a little nearer, Howard,
Why that shiver up your spine?
Don't you know our close relation?
What is yours, is also mine.

We have blundered surely, Howard,
We have come to be a bore,
Now the trodden ones are turning
And the public's growing sore.

By tomorrow you'll be sailing
Chipper as a bumble bee.
Draw a little nearer, Howard,
Vote the "bunch" and think of me.

SECOND PART.

imagine I am sitting
n our old accustomed lair,
You will be de facto Burgess,
will occupy the chair.

Don't forsake me, don't dear Dallas,
Call me early in the morn,
'll be nervous, sleepless, weary,
When I hear your bugle horn.

Let us stand together, Dallas,
Marching on to victory,
This will be our happy slogan:
"Where I am there you shall be."

is poem should be read with much rnestness and in a pleading tone.

Scranton Tribune Issues Supplement.

The Scranton Tribune published a special edition Saturday containing, aside from the regular edition, a business proclamation issued under the auspices of Scranton's leading citizens. It deals with the city of Scranton chiefly from an industrial standpoint and unlike the usual industrial edition, it is the work of the leading business men, whose only concern is the furtherance of the city's welfare. It is a neat and instructive article and both publisher and citizens deserve great praise for the creditable manner in which it is gotten up; and it will no doubt benefit that bustling city.

Use Mi-o-na, the guaranteed cure for stomach troubles, and get well. 50c a box at Warnock.

Political Thoughts.

Suppose if Kelly were elected, isn't it possible that he and McCabe would get so badly mixed up that it would take the legislator to sort them?

Some smart Aleck says that Shutterly has refused to endorse a certain candidate for chief of police. The Burgess has nothing to do or say in selecting policemen. Try again.

The editor of the News says that a newspaper publisher is supposed to "edit" the card left by a responsible citizen for publication, even though signed by the latter. Mr. Shutterly's card should have been published. It was a violation of newspaper courtesy to refuse it, and cowardly to comment upon it.

When a "ring" long in authority is so desperately anxious to perpetuate or continue its power, it should be taken to mean that it is governed by considerations not at all creditable. Such insistence is the result of a desire to continue its power or an anxiety to cover up the past. Voters of Monessen, are you content to discontinue a dynasty that has private interests that tempt corruption? Your suffrages make such corruption doubly possible and probable.

We have such men as Roosevelt, Root, Taft, Weaver, Folk and Jerome cautioning public plunderers that they can no longer masquerade in the name of the party to which they belong. Durham tried it in Philadelphia and is now hiding on the Pacific coast to escape the toils of violated law. Cox tried in Ohio and is now in political exile. Martin and his corrupt co-Democratic legislators tried it in Missouri and are now in the penitentiary. Men were found patriotic enough to rise above party to punish those who turned its temple into a den of thieves. He who argues that you must stand by your party associates—even candidates, right or wrong, is an enemy to his country and ought to be taught that treason is ever odious. None but a rascal would dare to thus insult the manhood of true citizenship.

AT THE THEATRE.

Mr. Campbell Stratton with one of the strongest supporting casts en tour will appear at Monessen opera house on Tuesday February 20 as Sherlock Holmes in "The Sign of the Four". The play is one that everyone enjoys It tells a beautiful story in a most attractive way. The stage pictures presented are unusual permitting of some very pretty original sets. The first act shows the rooms of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson at 221 Baker St., London, and it is with the feeling as being at home that one gaz s at the picture represented in this act A scene in the smallest detail a reproduction of the room as given in Mr Conan Doyle's story, and as the players, one by one present themselves, the audience recognize well the characters they have learned to know and desire to love. The cast includes Miss Gay Rhea and others.

Stars may come and stars may go, but Davis and Mack, the team that have been appearing in "The Irish Pawnbrokers" for the past few seasons, seem to cruise along just the same. They are headed this way and will be seen at the Monessen opera house Wednesday Feb. 21, and as the performance gave universal satisfaction last season, a packed house will surely greet them.

Preach the doctrine of good health and the use of Mi-o-na. Guaranteed to cure all stomach troubles. 50c a box at Warnock.

TO THE VOTER.

As a rule American cities and other self-governing communities get such government as they deserve. It is safe to assert that if the honest men, those who prefer good government rather than the rule of rings and gangs of grafters and joint keepers, would cooperate in elections they could rule even the worst of our municipalities. It is, we think, beyond question, that a great and long continued prevalence of crime in a city is proof positive that the reputable elements of the population, the majority in character, population and social influence, have been grossy negligent. For such a majority has only to unite for good government and a majority of the voters can easily be commended. Two cities form for us a startling example of bad government by virtual consent of the governed. For many years and until recently, Philadelphia tolerated a most infamous gang rule. The high toned respectability and abounding wealth of the great city appeared to be quite contented with abhorent conditions. But at length when the awakening came, the rascals were routed and the city placed in the hands of men who will strive to elevate it morally. Chicago the second city on the continent, is and long has been disgraced by horrid crimes few of the perpetrators having met justice at the hands of the law.

The past has revealed to us that much of the worst element in Monessen has been in political control. Men whose character and manly principles were of the most questionable were placed in high official positions and were in authority to interpret the laws and deal out justice to the better class of citizens of the municipality. This state of affairs we most abhor, but are forced to confess that the city has been held up to ridicule in the presence of the outside world.

The Independent is a Republican organ but has never confused the Republican party with a chosen few who have got control of the name of the Republican party. At the approaching election there is but one issue, "Common honesty." That sentence embodies every requisite of the people of our municipality. Every citizen who has a vote should go to the polls on election day and cast his ballot as earnestly and as carefully as he would place his signature to a note. After this is done in solemn deliberation no man need feel that he has done other than his duty. A revolt against corruption and outside control of our political policies will be a Godsend to Monessen and we trust this election will be the means of bringing about these reformations. Let every voter vote, vote the straight ticket for "common honesty."

Letter to Rev. Father Wigley.

Monessen, Pa.

Rev. Sir: This story cuts 3 two ways, and teaches two sets of people.

Father Galvin, Westerly, R I, had his church and residence painted. Good job; and this is how he went at it.

Measured all carefully—seems to have known Devoe.

Then got bids from the painters, paint to be supplied by them and by him.

Saved $70 by using Devoe.

One of those painters ought to have got that money.

Yours truly

Mr. George Vogel of Webster and Miss Lizzie Steppling of Donora, both well and favorably known, were married in the St. Charles church at Donora, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Father C. J Steppling performing the ceremony. Miss Alva Vogel, sister of the groom, attended the bride and Herman Steppling acted as best man. After they were dismissed by Father Stepling, they left at once on an extended wedding tour, touching at New York, Baltimore and Washington, D. C. They will be at home to their many friends after April 15th at the Union hotel. Miss Steppling is a cousin of Father Steppling and has made her home with him since the death of her parents. Zember The Better Man.

In three rounds of what was to have been a 10 round bout Saturday night Butch Zember gave Frazier of Pittsburg a severe drubbing and but for a very unfortunate occurance the fight would have ended in a knockout. Zember had Frazier groggy in the first round and he was only saved in the second by the bell which sounded just in time. In the third Frazier fell under one of Butch's good ones when Butch becoming impatient struck him before he arose and Fraziers seconds immediately jumped in to the ring. Morgan on the referee was then compelled to call a double foul resulting in no contest, however had Fraziers seconds not entered the ring Zembers foul could have been overlooked. Dixon and Cramm, both local lads boxed 2 fast rounds in the first peliminary, Jock Simco of McKeesport knocked out Buck Reardon, of Donora in 2 rounds, and Pitsy Brannigan and Kid Sullivan boxed 6 fast rounds to a draw, aside from the main bout it was the feature of the evening. A large orderly house witnessed the contest and all present were satisfied with the results,

Uses For Hymn Books.

"I made a few calls the other day," said the pastor of an uptown church to his congregation, "and in one of the houses I saw a strange thing. What do you think? One of the church hymn books, the property of this church, had been carried home and was placed under the leg of the table to lengthen it out. I remonstrated at this menial use of hymn books. Apologies and blushes were profuse. Now, I am not scolding about this, but hymn books cost this church money, and if any of you have tables too short in the legs please put a newspaper under them or a piece of wood. If you do this, we won't have to send out and buy another hundred hymn books, as we did last week."

The pastor had no sooner ended these remarks than a girl sitting almost under his nose calmly opened a hymn book, placed it between her back and the back of the pew and settled comfortably down to listen to the sermon.—New York Press.

Coleridge's Home at Nether Stowey.

The cottage was at the western end of the village, and there it stands yet, a poor, ugly house, close on the street. We went in, and after making clear to the good woman who owned it that we were not looking for lodgings we saw all that there was to see of the dwelling There were four rooms, two downstairs and two above. All were bare and disorderly, because, as the woman explained, housecleaning was in progress. It was needed. She showed us a winding stair, hardly better than a ladder, which led from the lower to the upper rooms. There was no view, no garden. But in Coleridge's day there was a small plot of ground belonging to the house and running back to the large and pleasant place of his friend Poole.—Dr. Henry Van Dyke in Scribner's

Jack and Jill In Norway.

A writer on Norway says, "Our familiar nursery friends Jack and Jill are descendants of Hjuki and Bil, the ebbing and flowing tides, the tumbling crests of which, breaking one over another as the waves wash the shore, are rather aptly described in the nursery rhyme."

HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
To find relief and cure?
No reason why any reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.
